

Explorer John's Nature Worksheets

Explorer John loves to go walking along the Trans Pennine Trail. While he is walking along, he looks out for any wild flowers, animals or birds that he can see. Here are some of his favourites. Can you find out their names, write them underneath and then count how many you see on your walk? You may be very lucky and see all of them, or just see lots of one of them.

